

THE EAGLE

(A NEWSLETTER OF ONA)

VOL 1 NO. 3

(For Private Circulation)

APRIL 1998

ROUSER

Col. Satinder Singh Bajwa (J-218)'s boundless patriotism for his School made him compile a unique databank of ON's addresses. Over the decades, he painstakingly and systematically collected from the Chronicle addresses of ONs running into hundreds. Col. Bajwa has very considerably forwarded these to THE EAGLE. Dr Surinder Gupta (J-1) based in USA would be advertising in "India Abroad" a popular Indian newsmagazine in USA, beckoning ONs to come together and forward their addresses to THE EAGLE.

But THE EAGLE cannot rest on its wings. We have many more ONs to reach (roughly three thousand plus). We earnestly request ONs to forward their biodatas and related information. April is the best time for ONs to break their silence, as from the most popular School Assembly prayer (called "Pop Song" in our times):-

April beam, the little thing,
Still it wakes the flowers of spring
Makes the silent birds to Sing
Pass it on (to THE EAGLE)

SCHOOL SONG

While we are boys in school
We learn our lives to mould,
By learning how ourselves to rule,
Alert and self-controlled,
Moving ever onwards, inspired by glories past,
We'll build a worthy future striving upwards to the last.
In Class and House and School
Alone we're sure to fail,
we must our many talents pool.
United we'll prevail,
Moving ever onwards inspired by glories past,
We'll build a worthy future striving upwards to the last.
In work as well as play.
Our friends are close at hand,
With all of them to help we may
Uplift our Motherland.
Moving ever onwards inspired by glories past,
We'll build a worthy future striving upwards to the last.
In India is our pride.
courageous just and true.
We'll serve our fellows, far and wide
Here and the whole world through.
Moving ever onwards inspired by glories past,
We'll build a worthy future striving upwards to the last.

YOURS NABHAITELY

Pathway to friends

Sanjay Mittal(S-609) writes "when I read the first issue of THE EAGLE,I was so inspired that I found the Old Directory issued by School in 1981 and wrote to few of my class mates on their old addresses and I got a reply from a few of them. This Wednesday I watched the serial 'Woh" on Zee TV, in which Old School friends meet after a long time for a common cause. I really felt like them that is to meet my old friends. I hope THE EAGLE will be a path between me and my friends."

Elated!

Col.SS Bajwa (J-218) felt elated to receive THE EAGLE."It was a long awaited requirement to unify the boys together"

Espirit-de-Corps

Col.Harpreet Singh Sethi (J-131) write "It is a step well taken and I am sure it would go a long way in further building up the bonds and esprit-de-corps of the Nabhaites. We have a fairly good population of Nabhaites in Ladakh (including Siachen) Sector:Col.SPS Tanwar, ColSK Sood, Maj.Garg(Mrs.Garg too is a Nabhaite) and the list goes on. Here the climate is cold but environment is HOT! Nabhaites are doing well thanks to the sound base that we could develop at the PPS with the guidance of dedicated teachers we had during our formative years. Brother Cmdr.Mitinder Sethi (J-76) is presently Vice President, Blue Star Ltd. at Bombay, and brother Jatinder Paul Singh.(J-81,JOJO) is flying for Blue Dart from Chennai."

PPS Family

Gurinder Kaur Virk(nee Nijjar) (S-347) writes "it is always a pleasure to know what old Nabhaites fraternity is upto. Just being part of PPS and sharing those innocent yet rewarding precious years on the campus makes one identify with the PPS Family. Being the youngest child of Mr.KS Nijjar (Ex-Maths) I fortunately spent maximum time with him and that has enriched my life as much.

Great Loss

Kulwinder Singh(R418) informs us of the sad demise in 1996 of his elder brother Devinder Singh Ahuja(R-140),PPS(66-72),who at that time was serving as Chief of Maggi plant of Nestle(Moga).A person of high calibre,he was doing very well in his professional life.He is survived by his wife and son Arjan(10) and daughter Amrita (12).

Deja Vu

Dr Manoj Sikand(S-579) felt "it was deja vu phenomenon after reading The Eagle.I felt like I was roaming in the Campus and the feelings of scenes of playgrounds came revolving in front of my eyes".

Errors and Omissions

Dr.Jaspal Chatha (R-89) writes from New York that "Not me but Dr. Pritinder Lamba(Ex-Beas,AFMC and now a Naval Doc.) was the topper in the class of 1966.Please let the fellow Nabhaites know that I never made such a claim and I am a bit baffled at your source. I remember being told by Mr.Cowell that his initials stood for 'Simple,Clear & Concise("Short" would be redundant with "Concise").If my memory serves me right his middle name was "Charles" and not "Collins".On this I could be wrong.I am sure he is turning in his grave when he sees the current standard of writing in the Chronicle".

Past Glory

Cdr.IJ Arora,IN(Retd.),(J-40) now sailing the East Coast of USA writes "it's great work you are doing,building the ONA fraternity.It needs a boost.The School will come to its past glory only when one of the ONs becomes Head-Master.Now days I am sailing,but some day I could do that."

Good going

Col.Gurjit Dhillon(B-69) writes that "It would be great pleasure to meet and know old friends .Congratulations and Gratitude to Jashanjot for having taken pains and to get the ONA Newsletter going. Also all other friends who have contributed to it".

Nostalgia

Rajiv Kumar Dhiman(J-251) is nostalgic about the School song.

Saturday Nights

Avtar Singh Randhawa (S-482) fondly remembers the scene enacted every Saturday night with the boys trooping back after the movies from the Senior school Auditorium to the Junior School with their small battery torches lighting the way.

ONA NEWS

WHILE WE WERE BOYS IN SCHOOL

Bapu da paisa

The Incharge of the Boys Shop, identified by his proud and prominent moustaches, was a forthright person. Whenever he found us boys (especially those with short hair) requisitioning shampoo, he would reason out with us "Beta, do you really need this shampoo. Isn't soap adequate for you?". We would arrogantly murmur among ourselves "Oye! What is it to you. After all it is our father's money and not yours". The memories of the purity of his selfless advice and our equally immature reaction hit us very hard a generation later when, we in the changed role as parents, find our children wasting money on avoidable cosmetics.

Adulterated Curry

This is from my early days in School. PPS was already famous as a reputed School, with boys coming from all over India. In the matter of numbers the contingent from Haryana was second, only to that from Punjab (In fact Haryana & Punjab were one state till then).

At supper, early one term, one of my new Haryanvi classmates on seeing fruit custard for the first time in his life remarked to the boy sitting next to him:-

a pencil from another boy's cupboard, Miss Malkani chided, "Kadee! Tumne uski Pencil churaee?"

Without batting his eyelids Kadee blurted, "No madam, Churaee Nahin Thi, Khiskae Thi".

(Contributed by Dr. Ranjit Singh Dhaliwal, S-153)

The Privileged One

Surinder Pal Singh Waraich (S-80), Bumpy, as he was called by friends in school is a mild mannered sporty fellow. However, he also had tough side to his image with some macho habits. He had the unique distinction of making money in school. His modus operandi was to con a fellow into betting with him for a certain (big) number of chapatis that he will polish off at lunch or supper. Invariably, he would win hands down and coolly pocket the winnings.

Now, when a guy had extraordinary habits, especially a glutton, it would not be long before Ms GB Malkani caught up with him. (Many a rustic turned gentleman today who has passed under her care can vouch for it).

It was soon enough that Bumpy was caught by Ms Malkani. She had watched vanishing sites of chapatis in the vicinity of Bumpy as soon as they were served on the table. Instructions followed. Bumpy was to show Ms Malkani sitting at the head of the table every time he rolled a chapati (at that time there were no trays. Bumpies took food in full plates

ONWARDS AND UPWARDS

When a School has 55 acres of land dedicated exclusively to playgrounds, facilities like Swimming Pool, Tennis Courts & Horse riding, an elaborate annual calendar of competitive games and a towering Sportsman spirit, then outstanding sportsmen from this School are a natural corollary:-

Col. Ranjit Pal Singh Mann (R-14), Head Boy PPS (65-66). Winner President's Gold Medal 1966, Col. Mann is the first Nabhaite to join St. Stephen's College (MA History). He is the Delhi University and Indian Universities 400M Record Holder. Recipient Sword of Honour OTA Madras May 94, SS-17(NT) Course.

Col. Satinder Singh Bajwa (J-218). Passed IMA in the "Super Block" (Top Twenty), having been the Battalion Cadet Adjutant (BCA). Passed Defence Staff College in 1989 and Senior Command in 1994. Played Golf for Services Team in 1984.

Capt. Ajay Ahlawat (S-546) is permanent member of the Indian Army Polo team and Cavalry Polo team for last seven years. He has represented India in the World Cup Polo.

Lt. Col Harjit Singh Bhagat (R318) has been member of the Inter Services Tennis team (81,85,86) and squash team (89,90,91)

THE PPS SPIRIT

One of the most indelible and powerful memories of my school days is when one evening immediately after the Dusshera Fete (after 1971 war), boys were asked to collect in the lawns facing the Swimming Pool. We were told that one of the ONs had won a Vir Chakra and when this decorated ON was asked where should the Govt. felicitate him he mentioned his School-PPS. We were awe struck by this ON's patriotism, bravery and above all, his love for his Alma Mater. We felt very proud when the Nabha SDM handed him a token cheque. The Editor relives the same pride and sentiments reprinting Rajwinder Singh Cheema's (R-8) presently at 1-B, Model Town Patiala, Tel: 302596" Vir Chakra Citation:-

"On the 6th December 1971, Lt. Rajwinder Singh Cheema led his troops for the capture of certain areas in the Western sector. He showed great skill and determination in crossing a Bandh and undeterred by the enemy fire, he lobbed grenades into the enemy bunkers and captured an enemy post. Even when isolated at night, he struck to his position and repulsed enemy counter attacks.

In this action, Lt. Rajwinder Singh Cheema displayed gallantry, determination and leadership of high order."

RENDEZVOUS-2000

It is time we started planning for the year 2000 A.D. to usher PPS into the next millenium as we had earlier proposed..In order to have maximum gathering,we would like to have opinion of all Old Nabhaites.Following is a list of first set of a series of questions for you to send us feed back on.

1.Would you agree winter time(say November/December) is the best time for organising the gala get together?(No heat,no exams,a few holidays,easy for those living abroad and less chance of infections).If you feel any other month is best suited kindly let us know and your reasons for it.Remember majority WINS!

2.Should it be a family Bash or Old Nabhaites only?

3.How long should the Celebrations last? Only Sunday OR Saturday & Sunday OR ongoing process from Friday evening to Monday morning.

4.What should be optimum charges per day per family(after adding inflation rate for the next two years)?(Since it would have to be contributory,although we will strive for sponsorships)

Send replies to THE EAGLE.These will then passed on to the President and Executive committee for discussions.
